

MONDAY 28 May 2018 in JOSEPHSON (Carson, Maathai, Ostrom) or WRANGEL 117

MONDAY	Venue	Examiner	Respondent	Thesis Title	Discussants	Supervisor
9.00-10.00	Ostrom	Lennart Olsson	Fabian Bendisch	Can the global North learn from the global South? Exploring possibilities for overcoming the psychological barriers to degrowth	Sara Fromm	Genesis T. Yengoh
10.15-11.15	Ostrom	Lennart Olsson	Sara Fromm	Degrowth: a movement or a vision? Identifying barriers and potentials for a powerful agent of change for the socioecological transformation in Barcelona	Tim Bauer	Turaj Faran
11.30-12.30	Ostrom	Lennart Olsson	Tim Bauer	Smart Planet Governance. Analyzing the role of big data for monitoring the Sustainable Development Goals	Fabian Bendisch	Elina Andersson
12.40-13.00	LUNCH
13.00-14.00	Ostrom	Lennart Olsson	Ebbe Korsgaard Andersen	Managing nutrients in Denmark's aquatic environment. A critique and a way forward for Danish management of re-created wetlands	Niklas Kaapke	Murray Scown
14.15-15.15	Ostrom	Lennart Olsson	Niklas Kaapke	Reaching for recognition and greening for growth. Perceptions of justice with regard to Sámi reindeer husbandry and wind energy in Norway	Owen David Carr	Henner Busch
15.30-16.30	Ostrom	Lennart Olsson	Owen David Carr	Whiskey is for drinking; Water is for fighting over. A critical investigation of the decision to build the Broken Hill to Wentworth water pipeline	Elina Persson & Therese Hågerup	Murray Scown
16.45-17.45	Ostrom	Lennart Olsson	Elina Persson & Therese Hågerup	Shit Matters! Assessing sociocultural barriers and opportunities for upscaling adoption of human faeces derived fertilizers in central Uganda	Ebbe Korsgaard Andersen	Sara Gabrielsson

MONDAY	Venue	Examiner	Respondent	Thesis Title	Discussants	Supervisor
9.00-10.00	Carson	Barry Ness	Su Yeong Jo	Unveiling stories in Korean smog. A Critical Discourse Analysis of the air pollution policy of Seoul metropolitan government in Korea	Alici Muhana Iannitelli	Henner Busch
10.15-11.15	Carson	Barry Ness	Aya Kasahara	Opening a new epoch of global ocean governance. A Challenge for Just Benefit-Sharing from the Marine Biodiversity of Areas Beyond National Jurisdiction	Su Yeong Jo	Stephen Woroniecki
11.30-12.30	Carson	Barry Ness	Alici Muhana Iannitelli	A New Cycle. Understanding current challenges of increasing cycling in a city of cyclists	Aya Kasahara	Genesis T Yengoh
12.40-13.00	LUNCH
13.00-14.00	Carson	Barry Ness	Tinela Selaru	Climate sceptics and climate believers: climate change beliefs and intergroup perceptions in a Swedish context	Isabell Burian	Sanna Stålhammar
14.15-15.15	Carson	Barry Ness	Stephanie Touvenau Petersen	BIOWASTE NON-SORTERS – WHO CARES. Examining Factors and Arguments from Citizens Not Sorting Biowaste in Copenhagen	Tinela Selaru	Genesis T. Yengoh
15.30-16.30	Carson	Barry Ness	Isabell Burian	It is up in the air. Academic flying of Swedish sustainability academics and a pathway to organisational change	Charlotte Elsa Jost	Murray Scown
16.45-17.45	Carson	Barry Ness	Charlotte Elsa Jost	Pushing innovation from below. The role of accelerator programs in the German Energy Transition	Stephanie Touvenau Petersen	Elina Andersson

MONDAY 28 May 2018 in JOSEPHSON (Carson, Maathai, Ostrom) or WRANGEL 117

MONDAY	Venue	Examiner	Respondent	Thesis Title	Discussants	Supervisor
9.00-10.00	Maathai	Anne Jerneck	Mette Orup	(Un)knowingly needing support. An exploration into the importance of social support and relations for climate-friendly Danes	Brynn Szukala	Sanna Stålhammar
10.15-11.15	Maathai	Anne Jerneck	Benedikt John	Time to Walk the Talk. Investigating the Incorporation of Sustainability at Lund University School of Economics and Management	Mette Orup	Henner Busch
11.30-12.30	Maathai	Anne Jerneck	Brynn Szukala	The (happy) partnership between feminism and sustainability. Exploring the potential of filling the gaps in sustainability education with feminist concepts, theories, and methods	Benedikt John	David O'Byrne
12.40-13.00	LUNCH
13.00-14.00	Maathai	Anne Jerneck	Cecilia Jaques	Moonwalking Through Late-Stage Capitalism: On Post-Truth, Facebook, and the Struggle Over Science	Judith Petra Mühlbacher	Turaj Faran
14.15-15.15	Maathai	Anne Jerneck	Josephine Ylipää	In the eye of the storm. A gendered sustainability science study on climate change adaptation in Thái Binh, Vietnam	Georgia Verkuylen	Sara Gabrielsson
15.30-16.30	Maathai	Anne Jerneck	Judith Petra Mühlbacher	Que(e)rdenker*innen united: Politicizing Ecological Grief within Western Cultures of Unsustainability through Impulses from Queer-Ecological Theory and Practice	Josephine Ylipää	David O'Byrne
16.45-17.45	Maathai	Anne Jerneck	Georgia Verkuylen	Not Gay As In Happy, But Queer As In Fuck You . An examination into how subaltern counterpublics contribute to understanding social change towards commons management.	Cecilia Jaques	David O'Byrne

MONDAY	Venue	Examiner	Respondent	Thesis Title	Discussants	Supervisor
9.00-10.00	W 117	Emily Boyd	Gavin Lord	Biodiversity after Brexit: Agri-environmental policy in England after Brexit and private investment in ecosystem services	Leonard D'Cruse	Stephen Woroniecki
10.15-11.15	W 117	Emily Boyd	Emil Hageman Christensen	Lifestyle change that matters. Introducing an ethics-as-politics approach to social change of consumer society	Gavin Lord	Turaj Faran
11.30-12.30	W 117	Emily Boyd	Leonard D'Crus	The Devil in Disguise: Seeking Political Opportunity Through Brexit to Claim 'Rights to the City' in London	Emil Hageman Christensen	Henner Busch
12.40-13.00	LUNCH
13.00-14.00	W 117	Emily Boyd	Tsvetelina Tomova	The mountain stands alone. Between conservation in Pirin National Park and tourism demand	Tessa Mazar	Sanna Stålhammar
14.15-15.15	W 117	Emily Boyd	Thiago Enrique Toste	Local Currencies: a tool for sustainability? A Transitions Perspective on the impacts of local currencies for sustainability – The case of the Bristol Pound	Tsvetelina Tomova	Turaj Faran
15.30-16.30	W 117	Emily Boyd	Tessa Mazar	Putting the power in plants. Using Green Infrastructure to Reduce Nonpoint Source Pollution in Aquatic Ecosystems in the Urban Center of Dublin	Thiago Enrique Toste	Stephen Woroniecki